Christmas Gifts

Welcome to our 2019 Christmas Gift Guide – it's a cracker! In 50 years travelling the world's vineyards there's one thing that hasn't changed: the frantic but happy rush at Christmas, especially sending gifts for our customers.

Because wine is made for sharing, for bringing people together. It breaks the ice and starts conversations, it makes for taller stories and deeper connections ... remember wine was doing 'social' 6,000 years before Facebook.

This year sees the return of favourites like gin baubles (p.19) but also new gifts like the beautiful festive bouquet teamed with Champagne (p.20) and the jumbo Christmas cracker (inside back cover) bursting with 20 delicious truffles – a perfect dinner-table centre piece!

Must also mention my book – what great fun to write – matching stories from 50 years in the trade with a bottle of my favourite Bordeaux. And now in a special gift set too.

Merry Christmas,

Tony

Tony Laithwaite (Club Co-founder)

P.S. Please don't forget, there's loads more choice online, too.

Just the ticket for fans of soft, generous flavours and classic grape varieties.

Chile is an increasingly astute choice for exuberant, pure-tasting Sauvignon Blanc and Don Cayetano's vineyards are some of the best in the Central Valley.

Velvety Finca Las Rejas is made from Rioja's famous Tempranillo grape and offers oodles of textbook red currant, plum and tobacco flavours.

Then we're back in Chile for Wolf Point Merlot – soft, smooth and charming ... quite unlike the surf break after which it's named!

Prosecco Luminoso is a bestseller, combining classic pear, green apple and melon flavours with a light 8.5% alcohol ... a great excuse for another glass.

Finally, old friend Barón de Barbón Rioja has never looked back since being dubbed "probably the best Rioja for the money in the UK" by the press.

Stunning, triple-Gold medal

HALF PRICE Champagne

Delmotte has been on a roll. "Brilliant ... best buy" enthused The Times and the Gold medals keep coming. Yet here it is for Christmas at HALF PRICE – JUST £35.99 £17.99 a bottle.

Despite 172 years of Champagne excellence, this is just the second time the family's fizz has crossed the channel ... and is proof that, if you search beyond the big names, "there's some incredible value grower Champagnes out there" (Decanter).

The newspapers have raved and it matched Bollinger and Veuve Clicquot to scoop three Golds for its crisp lemon and brioche flavours and creamy mousse. Yet, for the second Christmas in the UK, you'll pay half as much – saving £108 on a 6-bottle case.

So, triple Gold-medal, 'Best Buy' Champagne for Christmas at HALF PRICE – who could say no?
